Camilla Urso.

Now is a good time to recall the fact that the Merchants Library of San Francisco was founded by Camilla Urso and a big lottery drawing. Tickets were sold to hear the Queen of the violin play and California was rocked with excitement when the great event took place. She appears here on Friday evening, just at the time that a lottery excitement is rocking Nevada. The Merchants Library still lives as a monument to a successful lottery enterprise, and Urso appears in this State by a lucky coincidence, just as the star of the Lottery scheme is rising above the sage brush horizon.

A Pleasant Escort.

Members and Attaches of the Legislature and the other Winter sojourners at the Capital, can find no pleasanter place of resort for reading the latest papers and magazines and selecting popular books than at Cagwin and Noteware's corner store—diagonally opposite the B. & E. ## Home for Disabled Miners.

Assemblyman Garrard has drawn up a bill appropriating $30,000 to build a Home for disabled miners. The site must be located in Storey, Washoe, Lyon, or Ormsby counties. A State Board will control the Home and $600 a year will be appropriated for each inmate.

The applicant must have been disabled in a mine, hoisting works or mill and be a citizen of the State.

The bill is an excellent one, and ought to pass the present Legislature.

There is a glittering display of jewelry, diamonds and ladies' watches in the show window of the Rinckel building. The designs are of the latest, and will be sold during holidays, at prices which can not be duplicated in the State.

THE LOTTERY QUESTION.

A Sensible Article from the Reno Journal.

The charge that the Special Election was called by the Lottery Company is completely refuted by the Reno Journal in the following:

On Monday next, the 11th day of February, the voters of Nevada will be called to pass their judgment upon fourteen Amendments to the Constitution of the State, and it is right that the facts, as far as known should be fairly presented to the people and the purpose of this article is to so inform the voters that they may exercise their right of suffrage with a full knowledge of what the effect will be upon the general situation of public affairs. It is not the intention to attempt to mould public opinion upon Amendment No. 22, or the so-called Lottery question, but a decent regard for the truth incites the publication of the facts in the case, as understood by the Journal, and the voters can do just as their conscience or interest dictates.

The Amendments now before the people at this special election have been exposed to the public gaze off and on for years, but by hook and crook have never yet become a part of the organic law, and if the people do not want all or any of them, it will be in their power to declare on Monday next.

In the inaugural address of Governor Stevenson, session of 1887, he recommended the submission to the people at a special election, of Amendment No. 23, which provides that school monies may be invested in the bonds of other States, and not be confined to United States or Nevada State bonds, the object being to employ $300,000 in money in the School Fund so as to receive interest upon the same, and thereby gain two years time, and receive $35,000 in interest during the period, that being the amount possible if the money could be invested in California, or some other State's six per cent. bonds.

This is undoubtedly a wise move, and being so, the other amendments became tacked to the idea. So with No. 22. The Legislature of 1887, passed the Amendment, and it goes to the people with all the others.

The Legislature then provides an appropriation of $15,000 to pay the entire expenses of the special election, so that, except in an indirect manner, the counties bear no part of the burden.

The State can well afford to pay the expenses, if even only the Bond amendment is adopted, because there will be a profit of $20,000 for the School Fund. There is therefore, no extra expense because of the Lottery or the other amendments, and if the people do not approve of them, they ought to be voted down.

The Lottery scheme, so-called, has for its promoters, as named in the original bill: S. C. Wright, J. H. Kinkead, J. Klein and D. Circe of Carson, R. P. Keating, J. B. Overton and M. N. Stone, of Virginia, all of whom are well known throughout the State.

It is not certain that these men will have the franchise, for even if the Amendment is adopted the Legislature has the right to grant the privilege to other persons, and to designate the amount of revenue to be annually paid into the Treasury by the lottery corporation.

These men named, propose to pay the State $40,000 per annum. The Legislature has the power to make the amount twice or thrice that sum. This $40,000 would be one-sixth of the present expenses of the State, and if the tax-payers favor selling the privilege for such a sum, it is their privilege.

It upon moral or other grounds, they are opposed to the proposition the ballots of Monday will tell the tale.

Aftermath.

In the list of characters at the Kirmess the following names were accidentally omitted from the Appeals list.

Mrs. H. M. Yerington, Japanese costume.

Miss Taddie Doane, Turkish costume.

Miss Maudie Doane, Ireland.
